PINK FLOYD CD DISCOGRAPHY

OVERVIEW Cardboard Sleeve LP ReplicaNotes on cardboard sleeve LP replicas

Pink Floyd cardboard sleeve replica CDs are official releases meant for the collectors. Most of them were manufactured in Japan by the Toshiba and Sony labels with outstanding attention to the details. LP replicas are very often exact duplications of the first pressing of the 12" LPs and everything that was present in each original LP has been included and replicated such as gatefold sleeves, booklets, posters, stickers etc.

The 25th anniversary edition of Wish You Were Here and the box Oh By The Way with 14 Pink Floyd studio albums were also made and independently released in Europe. These editions are in most details comparable with the Japanese issues but neither the additional inserts such as copies of the vinyl labels nor the additional paper sheets with the lyrics are included and the CD labels are different.

All other LP replica issues on the market are not official. Their origins are basically Russian, but Asian issues are known as well. Sometimes as CD-only issues but also as CD+DVD releases. The quality of the Russian and Asian counterfeits doesn't reach the quality of the Japanese issues. Russian artworks are comparing to the Japanese sleeves a little bit blurred, and have some differences in contrast and colours on artwork.

Examples of Russian counterfeits of LP replicas (with Russian obis)

Japan

Japanese LP replicas are usually 13,5cm by 13,5cm. The thickness depends on the type of cover. A single non gatefold cover such as More or Relics is quite thin, whereas covers with a large number of inserts like Radio KAOS or Amused to Death, and gatefold covers like Atom Heart Mother and double CD sleeves like Ummagumma or The Wall are thicker. The replica of Pulse is thicker than the original vinyl issue with 4 LPs.

Like all other Japanese issues, the LP replicas were also issued with an obi - a piece of paper that wraps the artwork from left to back, containing the information about the name of the artist, record / song's titles, price in Yen and other information printed in Japanese.

On the right side of each Japanese issue in this Overview, you can see the pictures of regular and in some cases of additional obis. These additional obis, different from the regular obis are replicas of LP obis, have a form of a paper ring and are slipped onto the cardboard sleeves. The additional obi for Animals is a gimmick from the Japanese rock magazine "Super Guitarist". All other additional obis were made by the Japanese record store "Disk Union" as publicity stunt. All issues with an additional obi have got the regular obi strip as well.

Two LP replicas were issued without obi: Wish You Were Here and Pulse. Instead of obi one can find Japanese stickers with the same information as on the regular obi.

All Pink Floyd cardboard issues have some additional inserts. They are for example folded sheets with English and Japanese lyrics and information about the band, copies of original vinyl labels, reprints of included posters and stickers, replicas of printed inner bags with original artwork and postcards. See individual descriptions for the details of content of each issue in the Overview.

The discs are stored in additional plastic bags (Toshiba issues) or special cloth sleeves (Sony). The complete issues (cover, CD, inserts) are sold in clear, resealable plastic bags. The Wish You Were Here was issued in a black resealable "shrinkwrap" replica.

All CDs from the LP replica issues have art labels. On Toshiba issues the cover artwork was used for labelling the CDs (except: Wish You Were Here, The Final Cut and The Madcap Laughs). Sony labels looks like the original vinyl labels.

The first cardboard sleeve replicas of the original LP comes from Toshiba. All Pink Floyd albums from The Piper at the Gates of Dawn to The Final Cut and Syd Barrett's The Madcap Laughs were released between 2000 and 2004 on Toshiba. The issue of the Wish You Were Here as LP replica was originally planned for a release in 1995 on SRCS (with the catalogue number SRCS 7913) but shelved. Toshiba released this album in 2000.

In May 2005 Sony did also start the series of cardboard sleeve replicas which were not covered by the Toshiba issues. Sony released the Pink Floyd albums from A Momentary Lapse of Reason to Pulse and Roger Waters' The Pros and Cons of Hitch Hiking, Radio K.A.O.S. and Amused to Death.

Not every Pink Floyd albums and albums from the band members have been issued in Japan as mini LPs yet. The following albums are issued on vinyl but not issued as LP replica:

- Pink Floyd: Tonite, Lets All Make Love in London
A Nice Pair
Best of Pink Floyd / Masters of Rock
Works
Echoes
- Syd Barrett: Barrett
Opel
Syd Barrett
- Roger Waters: Music from the Body

No Japanese LP-replicas are known to exist from the solo efforts of David Gilmour, Nick Mason and Richard Wright or any of the samplers. The compilation Picnic was given a catalogue number (EMI/Toshiba TOCP-65784) but hasn't been published.

All Japanese cardboard sleeve replicas are very desirable and have reached high prices on the market. In order to achieve the high prices it is essential that the item is complete with all inserts and obi.

Some of the LP replicas from Toshiba-EMI CDs do not have TOCP numbers within the matrix. EMI did not make their own glass masters for the albums which they took over from Sony. Instead they used the glass master from Europe, but the stamping of the CDs took place in Japan. It were also known some issues with the US matrix numbers, for example on Animals CD.

It is also worth mentioning that many Japanese LP-replicas exist as "samples". The only difference is a small sticker on the back of the CD sleeve and the printed legend "sample" on the inner ring of the CD, close to the centre hole.

This discography lists all known officially Japanese LP replicas. But you can also find many cardboard boxes on the market, and only some boxed issues are listed here. Even though such issues are impressive, they are not officially released.

Some of the non-official cardboard boxes for Japanese LP replica

Non-official box for Roger Waters Japanese LP replicas.

There are several fakes and counterfeits of Japanese Pink Floyd mini LP replicas circulating in the market. They are mainly being distributed through the online shops.

As there are often obvious differences in the covers and inserts, it's normally possible to observe these differences when the genuine one and the faked one are placed side by side. Consulting this discography helps in many cases: All official Japanese versions are listed in here.

Example of counterfeited Radio K.A.O.S. LP replica. Silver sticker on obi in this counterfeit are missing, inner sleeve has rounded corners. Compared to the Japanese original, the label design and the design of the vinyl label replica are slightly different.

In February 2008 the European Oh By The Way box was also issued in Japan with two additional Japanese stickers pasted on front and bottom of the box and with an additional Japanese b/w booklet.

Europe

Like the Japanese issues, European LP replicas are usually 13,5cm by 13,5cm. The thickness depends on the type of cover. A single non gatefold cover is quite thin, whereas gatefolds and double CD sleeves are thicker. With exception of the Wish You Were Here the CDs were not issued in the resealable plastic bags. The original LP covers used for the reproduction were slightly different from the Japanese releases.

The first European LP replica was the 25th anniversary edition of the Wish You Were Here issued by EMI in 2000. This edition in a black resealable "shrinkwrap" replica, is in many ways comparable with the Japanese issue of this album but the poster and the additional fold out insert are not included and the CD label is slightly different.

In 2007 EMI issued a cardboard box set contains all 14 studio albums by the band in mini vinyl wallets. In addition to the albums the set includes a special 40th anniversary Storm Thorgerson designed poster featuring 40 Floyd images and two cardboard coasters with the cover art.

The discs from the box are housed in additional rounded dust protecting sleeves. Some issues (Wish You Were Here, Animals, The Wall, A Momentary Lapse of Reason and The Division Bell) have also picture inner sleeves. Only The Dark Side of the Moon and Wish You Were Here have additional inserts - see individual descriptions for the details of content of each issue.

During the production of the box some mistakes were made:

- Freak-printed inner sleeve for disc 2 on The Wall. Same songs have been printed on both sides (as side 3), and the songs are printed in partly erroneous order. Hey You is printed on top left on the original LP inner sleeve, but in the box-set it is printed at bottom right (the same error was made on some German and US vinyl issues).

EMI was brought to attention very quickly on the misprinted inner sleeves for The Wall and established an email address where one could have it replaced by mailing one's name and address.

- Postcard in Wish You Were Here has got the catalogue number for the Japanese mini-LP issue (TOCP-65549).
- In some boxes the Ummagumma has wrongly labelled discs by swapping the labels between the two discs.
- Some More and A Saucerful of Secrets have not an overall glossy surface. Probably occurred through the manufacturing process.
- Missing inner sleeve for A Momentary Lapse of Reason in some boxes.

Moreover, there are reports about missing albums in some boxes (The Piper at the Gates of Dawn, Dark Side of the Moon or Wish You Were Here) and about two copies of the same album in a box (A Saucerful of Secrets or The Dark Side of the Moon).

Compare to the other CDs in the box, very thin cardboard was used for the sleeve of Obscured by Clouds, it is uncertain whether this is deliberately or not.

The replicated labels seem to have been chosen randomly and without any explicit policy. Some are familiar labels and others are rarely seen, e.g. The Piper at the Gates of Dawn has got a label stating "Made in Gt. Britain" but are provided with BIEM NCB which means that it is made for Scandinavia whilst the cover has the number for the mono issue.

Oddly, but not a mistake, the discs are apparently made by using glass masters from four different plants: EMI Uden (Holland), unknown (only the matrix-numbers are visible), Mediamotion and EMI Swindon (the latter one was closed in 2002). It is unknown where the discs were actually pressed.

However, the quality of the European issues is comparable with the Japanese editions.

Just a short time after the official release of the box one could find counterfeits of the official version on the Asian market. From the outside they were rather hard to recognize, as the only difference was a slightly lower printing quality. Once opened it was obvious it was a fake if one could find:

- Chinese characters inside the outer box
- Missing resealable bag on Wish You Were Here issue
- Covers not properly folded
- Printing quality on covers differs from the original
- Bad printing quality of the CD labels

Chinese characters inside the outer box

This counterfeit was sold with a French sticker only, the European sticker was entirely missing. The matrix numbers have been imitated very well and the matrix-fake also contained ifpi codes.

The CDs were sold as a box-set in a non-sealed box. Disk Union is known as the producer of additional obis for the officially released Japanese mini LP replicas (for example for most of the Pink Floyd mini LP replicas released by Toshiba). Both, the previously produced additional obis and this box were sold in Japan officially, but only in Disk Union stores.

The A Momentary Lapse of Reason CD included in some of these boxes is probably the original release from 2005 - this album was not re-released in 2008.

For complete albums content, description and further details see the description of the original Sony's issues - the re-released CDs from 2008 are identical with the first releases from 2005. The price information and the release dates printed on obis and stickers are not changed either.
